at 31 mg

EVERY MAN MEEDS A SPRING OVERCOAT

There's nothing in the way of clothes that serves more purposes. Wear your Spring Overcoat on chilly days; use it to keep yourself dry during "April showers," slip it on when you are driving the car -you'll always look stylish.

Here you'll find styles for all tastes and sizes, $20.00 to

Murphy & McGarry 207 Main Street

FIRST ANNIVERSARY

Sunday Dinner de Luxe of the amount was subscribed by Served from 12-8 P. M.

$1.00 THE WAUREGAN HOTEL "WE THANK YOU"

BUY A LIBERTY BOND

SEE OUR CONVINCING WINDOW

For gifts at prices which cannot be duplicated, quality considered. Our business has developed because we have striven always to secure the newest trinkets at the lowest possible prices. We hold our customers by pleasing them.

WATCHES, DIAMONDS and UNUSUAL JEWELRY

> Expert Watch and Jewelry Repairing

21 BROADWAY

Phone 551-4

CUMMINGS & RING Funeral Directors

and Embalmers 322 Main Street

Chamber of Commerce Building

Lady Assistant

Ernest E. Bullard VIOLÍN TEACHER

Ail String Instruments repaired For appointments address & E. BULLARD, Bliss Place, Nor-vegetable plants from

Maplewood Nursery Co.

Wie Balletin.

Norwich, Saturday, April 13, 1918. VARIOUS MATTERS

Light Vehicle lamps at 7.55 o'clock

Big tracks of a Providence firm have been carrying loads of lumber overland from Norwich.

It was on April 12th in 1839 that John Haynes was chosen first gover-for of the Connecticut colony,

A Noank woman, Mrs. G. E. Andrews, has been appointed ticket seller in the union station in New London. Patterson's sawmill is being moved from Charles Miner's woodlot at North Stonington to a lot in the Wolf Neck Workers at the Red Cross room were busy Friday preparing the 6,000 gauge wipes to go in the next box forwarded.

Schools are preparing special exercises for Friday next, the 19th, which Governor Holcomb has designated as Arbor and Bird day.

Special sale of food of war substi-tutes at Woman's Exchange. Pussy-willow yarn in a variety of shades. Khaki and sock yarn.—adv.

It was not much like gentle spring Friday morning, with several inches of snow on the ground and trees and shrubs covered with ice.

During this month Venus is a morning star, rising two hours before the sun. It reaches its greatest distance (elonga-tion west) from the sun on April 21. Sunday, April 21, is Liberty Bond Sunday, when the churches are expect-ed to take note of the war and the need of money with which to carry it

Ellington grange voted at its meeting Wednesday evening to buy a $100 Liberty bond. During the evening $50

License your dogs in the town cierk's office now. Female dogs $10.25, male and spayed dogs $1.25. One dol-lar extra after May ist.—adv.

The Connecticut Bible society during the past year has distributed more than 6,500 Bibles among men of the state called into the military and naval service of the country.

District No. 3 of this county will hold a school institute in Stonington Wednesday, May 1. The district in-cludes Groton, Noank, Mystic, Led-yard, North Stonington and Stoning-

One morning this week, at the Wo-men's league room, Miss Jennie M. Case secured Liberty bond subscrip-tions of $300, and in the afternoon Miss Osyood sold an equal amount of

The Storrs expert, Miss Costello, who was scheduled to speak at Bolton Friday night, postponed her lecture to April 18, when she will demonstrate war cooking and school lunches in Grange hall.

The new sanatorium at Crescent Beach, the former White Beach hotel, just purchased by the state for a sea-side home for children, may be used early in the fall or even during the late summer.

Ina show window of the Boston store is displayed the elegant slik U. S. flag won by Troop 11, Boy Scouts, of Bean Hill, for securing the greatest number of subscriptions during the second Liberty loan.

For the past year he had been employed as a weaver by the Brainerd & Armstrong company. It is said that he had worked in New London and Willimantic. He has a brother in New London.

Charlotte A., 78, widow of Giles Avery of Groton, died Thursday. Her husband died several years ago. She is survived by two brothers, Charles F. Ferguson and William C. Ferguson,

The 126th annual meeting of the Tolland County Medical association will be held in the Rockville house Tuesday. The meeting will be called to order at noon by President Donald L. Ross of Mansfield Depot.

The summer term of the Danbury State Normal school will open July 9 of this year, it is announced by the state board of education. The normal

Capt. Joseph Wilbur, the oyster grower of Quiambaug, Mystic, states that the oysters bedded in the mud of that cove were a total loss by being smothered, while on gravel bottom they are all right except those crushed by the ice.

Service at the grave.

Undertaker Gager had charge of the funeral arrangements.

John Quinn.

The funeral of John Quinn was held Thursday from his home at 118 Putnam street, Olneyville, R. I., followed by a requiem mass at St. Teresa's

Work received Friday at the Woman's league room in the Thayer building from the Lebanon Red Cross, through Mrs. H. E. Hewitt, included three sweaters, seven helmets, four pairs socks, four pairs wristlets, and nine mufflers.

There has been received at the Otis library the book by E. E. Hale, Jr., Life and Letters of Edward Everett Hale, of interest locally, since this distinguished man was frequently entertained at the Gilman homestead at Norwich Town.

Registration of all places of amuse-ment, admission to which is subject to the war tax. is provided for under rules and regulations adopted by the bureau of internal revenue with the approval of the secretary of the treasury. Until April 15 is given to do this register

One of eight recruits who left Hartford Thursday from the army recruiting station, four being sent to Fort Slocum, while four others who entered the coast artillery went to Fort Adams, R. L. was Elliott Cleveland of Vernon, assigned to Fort Adams

Maplewood Nursery Co.

T. H. PEABODY Phone 986

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns at the advertising columns at the second stationary fall of the second stational stationary fall of the second stationary fall of the second

PERSONALS

Max Shuman of Norwich has been

Henry King of Hartford is the guest of relatives and friends in Norwich for a few days.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles L. Colton of Hartford were guests of Dr. and Mrs. F. B. Coles on Friday.

Private Howard Holmes, Fort Andrews, Boston, Mass., has been a visitor at his home in this city. Miss Gertrude Fraser has returned o Stafford Springs after spending a ew days with relatives in Norwich.

Mrs. Mary J. LeBlanc has received word that her son, Corporal Andrew LaBlanc has arrived safely overseas.

The Windham County Transcript notes that Mrs. W. M. Buckingham of Norwich sang at the Congrega-tional church in Danielson Sunday

A. W. H. Sterry, a frequent Nor-wich visitor, who has been so suc-cessful as teacher of the Model school at Mashapaug, has enlisted in the merchant marine service and will close his work at Mashapaug April 19.

JUVENILE DANCING

CLASS HOLDS RECEPTION Young People Present Many Pretty Exhibition Dances.

The closing reception of Mrs. W. The closing reception of Mrs. W. Ballentine Penfield's children's dancing classes was held Friday afternoon in the Chamber of Commerce hall from 4.30 to 6.30 o'clock. There were many pretty exhibition dances by the young people which were heartily applauded. The following was the programme: Grand march, led by Miss Betty LaPierre and Miss Marian Agnew; military one step; Baby Doll dance Miss Betty LePierre. The new; military one step; Baby Doll dance, Miss Betty LaPlerre; The Dance of the Fairies, Misses Dorothy Dewing, Dorothea Simpson, Edith Somers and Marian Agnew: fox trot, anaesthetic studies; Chinese dance, Masters Harry ters and Carl Sherman; Spanish dance, Miss Katherine Battersby; Sammies one step; Utrusca; fox trot; minuet, Miss Lucille Perkins and Master Franklin LaPierre; Gretchen, Miss Betty McCord; Virginia reel, final march.

Among those present were the fol-lowing from New London: Mrs. Stella Spaulding, Mrs. Lowery and daugh-ter Matilda, Mrs. Miller and niece, Miss Marjorie Williams.

BODY IDENTIFIED BY WIFE AND DAUGHTER Man Found in Thames River Proved to Be John F. McCarthy.

The body that was found in the Than so y that was found in the Thannes river on Thursday afternoon was on Friday identified as that of John F. McCarthy of Main street. The body was identified by his wife and daughter who stated that be had been missing from his home for about five FUNERALS.

Uriah S. Baton. On Friday afternoon the funeral of Uriah S. Baton took place from his late home at 8 Church street, Among the many mourners were relatives late home at 8 Church street, Among the many mourners were relatives from Waterbury and Providence About the casket were clustered forms of flowers. Rev. J. F. Cobb conducted the services. The bearers were two sons-in-law, John G. Reed of Providence and Joseph A. George of this city, a nephew, E. E. Baton, of Waterbury, and Edward H. Illison of Nor-Public invited to hear the man who was in Russia when the revolution broke out. He speaks at Davis theatre at 3.30 tomorrow. Y. M. C. A. auspices. See item on back page.—

Undertakers Church & Allen had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Mrs. Ambrose H. Wilson. The funeral of Isabella Cole, wife of Ambrose H. Wilson, took place Friday afternoon from her home on Whipple state board of education. The normal school course will be for six weeks, and the work will be intensive.

At 8 o'clock Friday morning in St. Patrick's church a requiem high mass on the first anniversary of the death of Isabella Flood, wife of ex-Mayor Timothy C. Murphy, was sung by the rector, Rev. John H. Broderick.

Stephen and the work of the death of Isabella Flood, wife of ex-Mayor Timothy C. Murphy, was sung by the rector, Rev. John H. Broderick.

Stephen and the work of Brooklyn, N. Y., officiated, and made an address. Hymns were sung. The bearers were lower than the bear of the work will be intensive.

McKnight and W. Mallison. Interment was in Maplewood cometery Rev. Mr. Dennis read a committal service at the grave.

Undertaker Gager had charge of the Thursday from his home at 118 Put-nam street, Olneyville, R. I., followed by a requiem mass at St. Teresa's church. Rev. Fr. Gibbons was cele-heart. Pay Fr. Doran deacon and Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Mayton of Hinson, Fla., announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Robbie Ethel Mayton, to James Edward Landers of Somers, now training with Company A, 106th engineers, Camp Wheeler. born in Ireland 78 years ago, and came to the country when 18 years old. He

The funeral of Joseph Scott was held from his late home on Meyers avenue Friday morning with many relatives and friends attending. There were many beautiful flowers. At the services in St. Patrick's church Rev. Peter J. Cuny officiated and Mrs. F. L. Farrell sang Abide With Me. There Many members of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks will attend a patriotic meeting under the auspices of the Connecticut lodges of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks at the Bijou theatre, New Haven, tomorrow (Sunday) afternoon at 3 o'clock.

L. Farrell sang Abide With Me. There were relatives from Bristol, Hartford and New London present. The bearers were Thomas J. Aubrey. James IFlynn, Joseph McMahon, Michael J. Murphy, John J. Sullivan and John McKenna.

Brigadier Andrews L. Farrell sang Abide With Me. There were relatives from Bristol, Hartford and New London present. The bearers were Thomas J. Aubrey. James to McKenna.

Brigadier Andrews L. Farrell sang Abide With Me. There were relatives from Bristol, Hartford and New London present. The bearers were Thomas J. Aubrey. James to McKenna.

Brigadier Andrews L. Farrell sang Abide With Me. There were relatives from Bristol, Hartford and New London present. The bearers were Thomas J. Aubrey. James to McKenna.

Brigadier Andrews L. Bri

Brigadler Andrews will pay an of-ficial visit to the local Salvation Army today and this evening special meetings will be held at Franklin square and at the Salvation Army ball on Market street. Grigadier Andrews will speak at both meetings. Archibald Gilchrist to Sing. Norwich people will be given rare treat on Sunday afternoon at meeting under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. when Archibald R. Gilchrist the noted local singer who is now in the U. S. navy will sing several war songs at the Davis theatre.

A Remedy Demanded. We have been pretty patient about all these substitutes, but when it comes to making gelatin desserts out of the goldfish wafers it seems as if something ought to be done.—Grand

Some men are born with black eyes informed the Paris Journal that no ship carrying a British craw will ever, on any pretext, take delegates to an informational Socialist conference.

SHORTAGE OF TEACHERS CRITICAL

Many Schools Maintained This Year With Great Difficulty-Entering Classes at Normal Schools Forty Per Cent Less Than Usual-Eastern Connecticut Committee Says Remedy Is Increased Salaries.

Realizing that the impending shortage of teachers is critical, the executive officers of the Eastern Connecticut Teachers' association have taken steps to bring the matter before the superintendents and school committees in this section of the state. Some-Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gordon and family of Norwich were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Claim Vaughn of Norwich has been spending several days at Central Village with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Simmonds.

The Windham County Transcript in the Windham County Transcript in other lines of work which are open to women, and that the remedy is into the work of the state Sometily of Norwich were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Steps to bring the matter before the superintendents and school committees will be closed schools because teachers cannot be obtained. That there will be great difficulty everywhere in the spending the week end with her parameters and Mrs. And Mrs. Mitchel Cloutier of the state Sometime ago Henry T. Burr of Williamantia will be great difficulty everywhere in this section of the state Sometime ago Henry T. Burr of Williamantia will be great difficulty everywhere in the spending the week end with her parameters and which is city, and Mrs. Mitchel Cloutier of the state Sometime ago Henry T. Burr of Williamantia will be great difficulty everywhere in the spending of Norwich was a committee to love and highly respected citizer will be great difficulty everywhere in the wi women, and that the remedy is in-reased salaries.

writing and stenography or otherwise preparing themselves for business positions. The entering classes at the normal schools are forty per cent. less that should be paid. It feels entirely justified, however, in urging upositions. The entering classes at the normal school superintendents and school officers the necessity of very substantially increasing the salaries now of-ution in the supply of trained teachers.

FROM CAMP DEVENS

NORWICH BOYS ARRIVE

Reception Held in Their Honor

Knights of Columbus.

to Shetucket street and thence to the hall, where the minstrels will take place.

The entertainment that they have planned to present is sparkling with wit and humor. Several new songs are among those on the programme, all of which will eventually appear in print. Among the new songs is the Browning Gun, written by Sergeant Daley, a former resident of Norwich, and dedicated to the 301st Machine Gun Battalion, Other songs will in-clude The Last Long Mile, a Platts-burg production now being sung at the Winter Garden in New York. The committee worked hard to get all the Norwich men in camp off, but owing to the fact that some of the man are attending divisional schools

BROADWAY SODALITAS HOLDS

Proceeds Will Be Added to the Free Wool Fund.

At the Y. M. C. A, hall Friday evening a delightful entertainment was given for the benefit of the Free Wool Fund by the Sadolitas of the Broadway Congregational church. The first part of the evening's programme con-sisted of vocal and instrumental selections. One of the features of the entertainment was the singing of Ar-chibald R. Gilchrist, well known in Norwich for his excellent voice. Mr.

Mr. Havelock Wilson, President of the British Seamen's Federation, has

BENEFIT ENTERTAINMENT

are among those on the programm

MANY BEAUTIFUL GOWNS SEEN IN "FLO-FLO" Davis Theatre Patrons Delighted With High Class Production.

The Norwich boys from Camp Devens arrived in town on Friday evening on the 7.10 train, 75 strong, and went immediately to their homes and later to the reception held for them at the Knights of Columbus hall under the auspices of White Cross Council, No. 13.

At the K. of C. rooms the soldier boys were made to feel at home and they were greeted by many of their Norwich friends. Grand Knight John H. Carney made a short address of welcome. A short programme was Norwich friends. Grand Knight John H. Carney made a short address of welcome. A short programme was carried out which consisted of cornet carried out which consisted of cornet upon. Taken as a whole Flo-Flo was should be shown to its success. The stage settings were elaborate and electric effects could not have been improved upon. Taken as a whole Flo-Flo was should be shou solos by James McCauley and vocal selections by other of the Camp Devens boys. Dancing was enjoyed during the evening, music being furnished by the K. of C. orchestra.

The opening scene pictured The Late in the evening those present were given a treat when Archie R. Glichrist, late of the Love o' Mike company, now a sailor in the U. S. navy, sang two solos. The Sunshine of Your Smile and I Want You Amera. Mr. Gilchrist was heartly ap-lauded for his exceptional singing. Refreshments of ice cream and wafers were served by the committee: John Conway, chairman, M. J. Cos-coran, Walter Hynds, Edward Sullivan and James Kearns. Among those present were Lieuts. Horton, Aldrich and Downey from camp and Rev. Father Lynch of Baltic, who is now a chaplain in the army. This evening the boys will give their minstrel show which is to be preceded by a short parade by the Camp Devens boys, the Home Guards and Tubbs band. The parade will start from the armory at 7.15 o'clock and will march to Burnham Square back over Main street to Washington Gr extra lyrics by George E. Stoddard.

OBITUARY.

William H. Cardwell. The death of William H. Cardwell, for many years one of the leading grocers in this city, occurred at his home Friday morning at 5.20 o'clock following an illness of about one week. He underwent an operation a short time ago and failed to rally.

He was born in Montville on Aug. 25, 1833, the son of William S. Cardwell, his paternal grandfather being William Cardwell, a Revolutionary solder. He came to Norwich when 19 years of age and for six years was completed as a clork by the let D. P. they were unable to get away and some of the last men to arrive at camp are still under quarantine. employed as a clerk by the late D. P.

WILLIAM H. CARDWELL

Norwich for his excellent voice. Mr. Gilchrist, who is now in the U. S. navy, rendered four selections—The Sunshine of Your Smile, Liberty Bell, Keep the Home Fires Burning and the Marseillaise. Mr. Gilchrist was applauded many times and was forced to respond to many encores. Another feature of the programme was the duet by Mrs. Walter M. Buckingham and James J. Moore. The song rendered was It's Up to You. This is the prize song of the Third Liberty Loan and was written by Mr. and Mrs. Hirma Browning of Toledo. Mr. Browning is a nephew of C. D. Noyes of street in the building just west of ing is a nephew of C. D. Noyes of this city. The programme was as follows: On Joseph Connors & Sons. In 1859 he married Miss Lucy Lef-fingwell Morgan, daughter of Guerdon The programme was as follows: On the Sea, double quartette, Bass Clef; violin solo, Miss Elizabeth Lane; solo, Archibald Gilchrist; duet, Mrs. Walter M. Buckingham and James J. Moore; violin solo. Miss Lane; soprano solo, Miss Kendall; vocal solo, Archibald R. Gilchrist; double quartet, Bass Clef.

The second part of the programme was a play entitled Courtin' by Rule. and Mabel Morgan, of Norwich, Rev B. H. Paddock being the officiating clergyman. Mrs. Cardwell s descended ter M. Buckingham and James J. Moore; violin solo, Miss Lane; soprano solo, Miss Kendall: vocal solo, Archibald R. Gilchrist; double quartet, Bass Clef.

The second part of the programme was a play entitled Courtin' by Rule, This was a humorous sketch in which the parts were exceptionally well beritages. this was a humorous sketch in which the parts were exceptionally well taken and showed up a fine quality of local talent. The cast of characters follows:

Mr. Tompelius.

During the same year as his marters follows:

Mr. Tompkins, Dr. Clarence A. Spear
Mrs. Tompkins, Mrs. A. C. Freeman
Jeddy (their son) W. Avery Gallup
Widder Higgins, Miss Marion G. Beebe
Dolly (her daughter)

Miss Vilette M. Peck
Squire Martin.

Eugene Smith
First Aunt, Miss Elizabeth C. Wilson
Second Aunt, Miss Helen M. Spalding
Third Aunt, Miss Maria H. Morrison
Fourth Aunt, Miss Gladys B. Austin
Fifth Aunt, Miss Abby C. Gallup During the intermission there was a sale of home made candy from which a good sum was realized.

During the same year as his marriage Mr. Cardwell formed a partnership with Benjamin F. Tracy of Bozrah and the firm conducted the bisiness for two and one-half years, when Mr.
Cardwell retired. Later Mr. Cardwell opened a store in the west half of the building of Rawson & Whipple. After two years, Mr. Cardwell took Joseph J. Waite, a clerk, into partnership with him, and the firm was known as Cardwell & Waite. After several moves the firm located their business in the Rockwell building. The firm continued to do business until 28 years ago, when Mr. Vaite died. Mr.
Cardwell the carried on the business Cardwell then carried on the business alone up to Dec. 26, 1912, when he sold out to J. M. Young. Mr. Cardwell was connected with the grocery busi-ness for over 60 years, being the oldest merchant in his line when he retired Mr. Cardwell was a member of the Trinity Episcopal church, where he had been a vestryman for many years. He was a member of the Arcanum club and an incorporator of the Chelsea Savings bank. He was one of the oldest Masons in this vicinity and had always taken a deep interest in this order. He was a member of Somerset lodge, No. 24, F. and A. M., and being a 32d degree Mason belonged to all the local Masonic bodies. He was a trustee of Columbian commandery, No. 4, K. T.

4. K. T.

Mr. Cardwell has been a subscriber and constant reader of The Norwich Bulletin for 60 years, being one of the original subscribers.
Surviving are his wife and four children, Mabel and Harry of this city and George and Alice of Denver, Col. Henry Truesdell.

(Contributed.) The death of Henry Truesdell, 34 at Attawaugan, removes not only the oldest, but one of the most dearly loved and highly respected citizens of Packer.

Mr. Truesdell was born at Oxford,
Mass., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Truesdell, one of Windham county's pioneer cotton manufacturers. For over half a century Henry Truesdell was a superintendent of cotton mills at Packer. lines of work which are open to women. This condition will be permanent although it is of course emphasized by demands due to the war.

The inadequate salaries paid to the teachers as related to the increased cost of living ad to salaries in other occupations.

The remedy for these conditions is increased salaries. Teachers are leaving because other occupations pay creased salaries.

In their report the committee say:
Many schools have been maintained this year with great difficulty. Some have been closed for longer or shorter periods for lack of teachers. Others have been kept open by employing or retaining teachers who are incompetent. Many teachers have left the profession during the year to accept. High school students will not offer to secure teaching positions at profession during the year to accept. Superintendents in many towns report that teachers are studying typewriting and stenography or otherwise. It is not the purpose of this com-mittee to suggest definitely the sala-ries that should be paid. It feels enthe second marriage,

In connection with the Ensworth family it may be of interest to add that the original Ensworth received right and title to their several farms at Packer direct from the Indians. at Packer direct from the Indians.

Henry Truesdell outside of being one of the very best cotton mill men of his day, was one of God's noblemen in every sense of the word. None knew him but to love, honor and respect him. In politics he was first a whig, then a staunch republican, but in spite of his prominence and his party's frequent demand he flatly refused to hold office. He was a member of the Masonic order and the Methodist Episcopal church, and up to quite recently had kept at work to quite recently had kept at work around his home place in spite of his great old age. Many there are who have profited by being intimately associated with so good and noble a man and for miles around his loss of the profit o although not unexpected will be deep

Mrs. Sarah Louise Stewart Edgecon (Contributed)

Following an illness of several years' duration, Mrs. Sarah Louise Stewart Edgecomb passed peacefully away at her home in North Stoningsome seasons past.

The opening scene pictured The Bride Shop, Fifth avenue, New York, and Act II took place in the Art Studio on a Long Island country residence. The Lingerie parade by the girls was beautiful. Among the song numbers worthy of special mention were, When a Small Town Girl Meets a Small Town Boy, by Angelina (Mildred Beverly) and Billy, her sweetheart (Bert Gardner). Gooy-Bye, Hayyp Days, by Angelina, Would You Haypp Days, by Angelina (Milderd Beverly) and Billy, her sweethear, of North Stonington, and William E Stewart, of North Stonington, and William E Stewart of North Stonington, on May 29, 1844, the Inns Brothers. Hal Skelly who is a natural born comedian, made a decided hit wift the audience, whide Joseph Holland was exceptionally good in the role of the Count Pedro de Seguilla.

Fio-Fio was written by Fred de Gresac. The music is by Silvio Hein.

The dances are by Dave Bennett, and extra lyrios by Gresac. F. Steddard over the Steddard of the Steddard of

During her long illness she was tenderly cared for by her brother, William E. Stewart, with whom she Wauregan Block, Norwich, Ct. had lived since the death of her hus-band. Possessed of a happy and sun-ny disposition, Mrs. Edgecomb made with burial at the Stewart Hill cemetery. Edward Hopkins Tibbits. Edward Hopkins Tibbits, formerly of Norwich, died at Boston on Friday. Mr. Tibbits, who was well known in this city, was the son of John W. and Lydia R. (Twining) Tibbits. Mr. Tibbits was at one time assistant cashier of the First National bank. cashier of the First National bank, now out of business. He was deeply interested in theatricals and was formerly local representative of The Dramatic Mirror, a theatrical magazine. Of late years he had been employed during the summer season as clerk at the Ocean house, Watch Hill.

He is survived by a sister, Miss Katherine W. Tibbits, of this city. A brother, Henry Waterman Tibbits, died brother, Henry Waterman Tibbits, died in Norwich July 22, 1917.

ITALIAN BAND VOLUNTEERS Will Lead Company K in Parade to

Be Held This Evening. Company K. Home Guards, will b headed by the Italian band in the pa-rade to be held tonight by the Camp Devens boys. Captain Charles A. Hagberg announced Friday night that the Italian band has volunteered its services to Company K. The Home Guards and band will assemble at the armory on McKinley avenue.

The Home for 1 year to 7 years, all the latest models in Tan.

A Different Animal, However bad things may look, is should help some to remember this Hindenburg has now tackled a bull-dog and not a rabbit, as in the case of the advance in the East.—Savan-

Where Words Fail. We're advised to refer to the Ger-mans as "the enemy." Which seems the proper thing to do. But what shall we call the profiteers?—Toledo Blade.

GIVE YOUR SOLDIER BOY A MILITARY WRIST WATCH

HE WILL PRIZE IT MOST OF ALL GIFTS. INGERSOLL, WALTHAM, ELGIN, ILLINIOS, SWISS MAKES, 7 JEWEL TO 17 JEWEL.

The Plaut-Cadden Co.

Main Street,

Norwich, Conn.

PRICES $4.25 TO $30.00

BUY A GOVERNMENT BOND

Help Your Country!

FEED THE BOYS OVERSEAS

CLOTHE THE BOYS OVERSEAS

Save your Country to Government by the People for the People, and when you have done that, you are surely helping yourself.

Will L. Stearns

The F. A. WELLS CO.

GOOD CLOTHES STORE

A Leisurely People. The rush of citizens to file income tax-returns at the last hour showed that the American public is still running true to form—New

The Lyons Co.

many friends to whom her death wil come as a distinct loss. The funeral will be held at her late home in North Stonington village this (Saturday) afternoon at 2 e clock, with horial at the Stewart Hill ceme-Coats

We are showing a fine line of Coats from 1 year to 14 years, in Navy, Checks, Tans, Rose, Copenhagen and Green. Coats that have a dash of style and fit and the prices are right.

BOYS' COATS the latest models in Tan, Navy, Checks and Brown.

HATS

to match the coats for the girls and separate hats.

HATS FOR THE BOYS See our line of GING-HAM and CHAMBRAY DRESSES, also MIDDIES.

DR. F. C. JACKSON DR. D. J. COYLE

DENTISTS

203 Main St., Norwich, Ct. Telephone